

I NEED AN ALLY BECAUSE

HELP BUILD NEW ALLIES!

WANT MORE WAYS TO ENCOURAGE YOUR ALLIES?

Come Out. There is no bigger game-changer than being out and proud. Come out to friends and family as LGBT so that they know who their support will help.

Speak Up. Many potential allies don't know if their voices are needed or wanted. Speak up and let them know that their words and actions aren't just welcome – they're urgently needed to achieve equality.

Join In. Be part of providing resources and education to your allies. Share books like the guide to being a straight ally and the guide to being a trans ally, send links to the Straight for Equality website, and include them in events at work and in the community.
