

Exclusive LGBTQ+ Legislative Issue Briefings

Session Description:

Many organizations are looking for ways to educate leadership and employees about what local, state and federal laws that impact the LGBTQ+ community mean for business and inclusion. PFLAG National—a nonpartisan organization—offers one-hour, workplace-appropriate issue overview briefings. Using PFLAG’s inclusive, diverse, and education focused approach, this session provides unique and timely learning opportunities for participants. Please note: Content for these briefings is dependent on current issues/events.

Content Overview:

Leveraging PFLAG’s 50 years of experience as the nation’s original ally organization, this session will:

- Learn more about the cultural backdrop for what is happening in both legislative and judicial activity around LGBTQ+ equality and inclusion
- Discuss key issues being faced by people who are LGBTQ+ at both state and federal levels
- Know how to take action to promote equality and inclusion in everyday settings as well as find out what issue advocacy tools are available for more advanced steps
- Optional: Include brief employee narratives about how the current political landscape is affecting their lives and the lives of their families. PFLAG provides guidance on the creation of these personal stories

Session Length:	90 minutes (in-person or hybrid), 60 minutes (online only)
